The Week Ahead

Wednesday morning service at 10am.

Psalm 69.14-20

¹⁴ Rescue me from the mire, do not let me sink;
deliver me from those who hate me,
from the deep waters.

¹⁵ Do not let the floodwaters engulf me or the depths swallow me up or the pit close its mouth over me.

¹⁶ Answer me, Lord, out of the goodness of your love; in your great mercy turn to me.

¹⁷ Do not hide your face from your servant;
answer me quickly, for I am in trouble.

¹⁸ Come near and rescue me;
deliver me because of my foes.

¹⁹ You know how I am scorned, disgraced and shamed; all my enemies are before you.

²⁰ Scorn has broken my heart and has left me helpless; I looked for sympathy, but there was none, for comforters, but I found none.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and shall be for ever. Amen

Post Communion Prayer

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining and whose power we cannot comprehend: show us your glory as far as we can grasp it, and shield us from knowing more than we can bear until we may look upon you without fear; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen

Father's Day

Happy Father's Day to all fathers, grandfathers, stepfathers, foster fathers, and those who fulfil a fatherly role in the lives of others. Today we give thanks for the love, guidance, encouragement, and support that fathers and father figures provide. We pray that God will bless and strengthen you, and fill your lives with His peace, joy, and grace. May you know God's love and blessing today and always.

As we celebrate and give thanks for fathers and father figures today, we also remember those for whom Father's Day may be difficult. We hold in our prayers those who never knew their fathers, those whose relationships with their fathers were painful or complicated, and those who mourn fathers who have died. May God's love, comfort, and healing presence be with all who find this day challenging, and may each one know the embrace of our heavenly Father, whose love

never fails.
